Definitions:

An Ri representative is anyone who works for or with the Ri, including staff, contractors, volunteers, contributors to public and educational programmes, Trustees and committee members, Ri ambassadors, or organisations or individuals who undertake relevant work on behalf of the Ri.

A child is anyone under the age of 18, regardless of any other status.

Ri activities are any activities which are organised by or on behalf of the Ri, no matter where they are located or if they are online. Some activities may fall under alternative safeguarding arrangements, as is outlined in Section 2.

A disclosure is when a child or adult reports abuse or concerns to you.

1. Policy statement

1.1 The Ri believes that safeguarding children is paramount and should be at the heart of all that we do. Child safeguarding is:

- Protecting a child's right to live in safety, free from abuse and neglect
- People and organisations working together to prevent and stop abuse or neglect and reducing the risks of this happening
- Making sure that the child's wellbeing is promoted; including, where appropriate, having regard to their views, wishes, feelings and beliefs in deciding on any action.

1.2. We require all individuals associated with the Ri to:

- Share this commitment
- Understand that safeguarding is everyone's responsibility
- Safeguard the welfare of children and promote their wellbeing¹

2. Scope

2.1. This policy applies to all individuals acting on behalf of the Ri who may come into contact with children, referred to as "Ri representatives" in this policy.

2.2. This policy applies to both in-person and online activities, regardless of location.

¹ Child protection is a part of safeguarding and promoting welfare. It refers to the activity that is undertaken to protect specific children who are suffering, or likely to suffer, significant harm.

- 2.3. This policy does not cover:
- Safeguarding adults (please see the Ri's Adult Safeguarding Policy)
 - Organisations or individuals who use the Ri purely for hire
 - Organisations or individuals where it has been contractually agreed that activities will fall under alternative safeguarding arrangements.
- 2.4. For safeguarding purposes, a child is anyone under the age of 18, regardless of any other status. This includes:
- Any child who comes into contact with the Ri or takes part in Ri activities in any location, including online
 - Children of adults who come into contact with the Ri or who are associated with the Ri in any way, regardless of whether an Ri representative has any direct contact with those children

3. Purpose

- 3.1 This policy outlines the Ri's commitment to safeguarding children. It aims to ensure that all Ri representatives have a clear understanding of both the principles involved and their own responsibilities in safeguarding children and protecting them from harm.
- 3.2 The accompanying Safeguarding Procedures include guidance on identifying and responding to concerns, good practice involved in safeguarding children and how to record and report concerns and disclosures.

4. Child Safeguarding principles and commitments

The following principles underline the Ri's approach to child safeguarding:

4.1. The welfare of children is paramount

- 4.1.1. Safeguarding takes precedence over other considerations across all Ri activities.
- 4.1.2. We are committed to nurturing a culture of safeguarding and ensuring that poor practices are challenged. This includes, but is not limited to, providing the appropriate support and supervision for all Ri representatives, proportionate to their role, to help ensure that they are clear about their safeguarding roles and responsibilities.
- 4.1.3. We will follow safer recruitment and selection practices, in line with our Safe Recruitment and Selection policy, including background checks relevant to the role and a relevant assessment of a candidate's safeguarding knowledge and experience.
- 4.1.4. Vetting checks will be carried out at an appropriate level, with repeat checks undertaken regularly and any changes in role reassessed.
- 4.1.5. All Ri representatives will be offered regular safeguarding training suitable to their role and experience.
- 4.1.6. Ri representatives are expected to:
- Work together with other Ri representatives, children and their families and relevant external organisations to help achieve the best possible outcomes for children and to protect them from harm
 - Know what to do and who to speak to if they have any safeguarding concerns relating to a child or an Ri representative
 - Follow the relevant Safeguarding Procedures to recognise, respond to and report any concerns proactively and swiftly, no matter how minor or who is involved.

4.2. All children have a right to protection from harm or abuse, regardless of any factor which may impact on their risk level or access to support

- 4.2.1. We are committed to providing a safe environment where all children are included, listened to and treated with respect.
- 4.2.2. We recognise that some children are additionally vulnerable due to a variety of factors and commit to equitable treatment throughout our safeguarding practices and our work with children.

4.3. Safeguarding is everyone’s responsibility

- 4.3.1. If anyone has a concern about a child, or is told about something which causes concern, they MUST report it to one of the Ri’s Designated Safeguarding Officers (DSOs) or an appropriate responsible person where this is not possible. They cannot assume that someone else has done so, or that it is not their place to do so.
- 4.3.2. No single person can have a full picture of a child’s needs and circumstances, but for children and families to receive the right help at the right time, everyone has a role to play in identifying concerns, sharing information appropriately and taking prompt action.

4.4. All concerns or allegations relating to safeguarding or abuse must be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately

- 4.4.1. We commit to promoting a culture where abuse will not be tolerated, where reports are taken seriously and acted on appropriately, and where children can feel safe.
- 4.4.2. If abuse is disclosed or safeguarding concerns are raised, this information cannot remain confidential and must be shared with the appropriate responsible people at the Ri so that action can be taken to protect everyone.
- 4.4.3. The Ri will take all concerns, allegations and disclosures seriously and will respond according to the safeguarding principles outlined in this policy:

Recognise	Respond	Refer	Record
We will recognise all concerns, reports and allegations, taking them seriously and determining the action required in line with safeguarding best practice and our duties as a charity	We will respond appropriately and proportionately This may include (where appropriate) liaising with the person who raised the concern and/or the child and/or their parents/carers	We will refer concerns to external agencies as appropriate	We will record all the relevant information This will include clear records of all decisions taken over referral, including any input from the child and/or their parents/carers

- 4.5.4 The Ri’s Designated Safeguarding Officers (DSOs) and/or directors, as appropriate, will assess whether a concern meets the criteria for referral under safeguarding legislation and what actions need to be taken in order to safeguard the welfare of the child(ren) in question.
 - 4.5.5 Poor practice is not in itself abuse, but can create environments where abuse or harm can more easily take place. Concerns of this nature can be discussed with the DSOs but depending on circumstances may fall under alternative reporting arrangements, such as the Ri’s Whistleblowing Policy.
- 4.5. Working together with children, their parents, carers, and other agencies is essential to promoting children’s welfare and ensuring their protection
- 4.5.1. We are committed to supporting the timely sharing of information with relevant authorities when there are concerns about a child’s welfare, and contributing to effective partnership working between all those involved. In some limited circumstances, to better protect the child it will not be appropriate to engage with parents and carers.

- 4.5.2. We expect professionals to act on our concerns and we will consider escalating concerns where we are not satisfied that they have been taken seriously.
- 4.5.3. Data protection legislation is not a barrier to sharing information relating to a safeguarding concern; there is a legal duty to share information with the relevant people and organisations when a safeguarding concern arises.
 - Confidentiality must be maintained so that information is handled and disseminated on a need-to-know basis only
 - Information held about individuals by the Ri will only be disclosed to others either with their consent or when there is a legal duty to do so.
- 4.5.4. The Ri will comply with its legal duties to make relevant referrals to the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) (or equivalent) where the threshold is met to do so², and will determine any steps necessary to protect everyone during any pending enquiries.
- 4.5.5. As a charity the Ri also has a duty to report serious incidents to the Charity Commission. This includes (but is not limited to) any incident which is serious enough to warrant referral to the Disclosure and Barring Service.

- 5.2. Where Ri representatives are undertaking activities outside of England, the relevant regional or national legislation will also apply. They should contact the DSO for advice on any inconsistencies between the applicable regional guidance and this policy.

6. Working with partner organisations

- 6.1. Partner organisations working with children are expected to:
 - 6.1.1. Have robust child safeguarding policies and procedures in place for all partnership activities, to protect children in line with safeguarding good practice and adhering to all current safeguarding legislation;
 - 6.1.2. Use staff and volunteers for partnership activities who have been appropriately trained and vetted according to their roles.
- 6.2. Safeguarding expectations of partner organisations that work with children will be included in contracts or other agreements as appropriate.
